

Information Systems Minor: Substitute Courses

Revised on Fall, 2015

The current Information IM minor requirements include the following 4 out of 5 courses. However, due to some of the courses are not currently offered regularly, students are allowed to minor in IM with the substitute courses.

The current requirements in the catalog are:

MGT/ECO 230	Introduction to Managerial and Economic Statistics	4 credits
BUS 352	Introduction to Systems Analysis	3 credits
BUS 205	Data Communications and Networks for Business	4 credits
BUS 334 OR ACC 250	Decision Support Systems Accounting Information Systems	4 credits 4 credits

Students who declare IM minor can fulfill the course requirements with the following set of courses.

MGT/ECO 230	Introduction to Managerial and Economic Statistics	4 credits
BUS 215	Information management	4 credits
ISI 315	Information Security & Risk Management	4 credits
BUS250 OR ACC 250 OR ISI 334	Computers in Information Processing Accounting Information Systems Business Intelligence and Analytics (The waiver for the pre-requisite courses can be granted).	3 credits 4 credits 4 credits

For any questions, please contact soon.chun@csi.cuny.edu